

Piermont Remembers Participant Release

I will be or have been interviewed for the Piermont Remembers project:

The recording of my interview contains or will contain material to which I hold copyright. By signing below, I transfer copyright in that material to the Piermont Library and Piermont Historical Society.

By signing below, I authorize the Piermont Library and Piermont Historical Society to share my interview with the public, in part or whole, and to use my name, image, and voice, as well as my story in connection for the oral history project and for promotional purposes.

I have had a chance to discuss this form with Piermont Library and Piermont Historical Society staff and have received complete answers to all of my questions.

By initialing the items below, I can add a supplemental provision to this agreement:

___ I hold copyright in the following personal documents and photos that I have shared with the oral history project. I transfer a non- exclusive copyright in them to the Piermont Library and Piermont Historical Society and authorize them to share these materials with the public:
